

HE Wants a Tie or Muffler.

You may depend on that; for no matter how many neckties a man may have, he's always glad to get more. Part of the pleasure of giving is in the choosing; being sure of HIS pleasure, add to your own by making selections from our choice assortment of

Holiday Neckwear,
25c. to $1.50.

We call special attention to our 50c line of four-in-hands, batwing bows, puff and Tecks. The new Oxford muffers come in pretty patterns. Price $1.00 and $1.50.

Watkins, Harlan & Evans.

SOUTH COLUMBIA.

Miss Kate McClellan, who is attending school in Franklin, came out to spend Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Clarence Williams, of Sheffield, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cameron.

Linda, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Powell, is sick with fever.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mooney are the proud parents of a girl baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cook have gone to house-keeping in a cottage on South High street.

Opera House
—ONE NIGHT—
Dec. 10
MONDAY,

PALMER'S Spectacular Production,
TEN NIGHTS
IN A BAR ROOM.

The Great Pastoral Drama.

Better than a thousand sermons.—MOODY.
It teaches a great moral.—BRECHER.
Mirth, music, pathos, tears.
Using a car load of special scenery.
An instructor for young people.

PRICES, 35, 50 and 75c.

Room Raided.

City Marshall Latta and Officers Lipscomb, Dodson, Butts, Voss and Owen made a raid on room No. 56 at the Bethel House Sunday night, suspecting that gambling was in progress there. Nobody was found in the room, but a lot of gambling paraphernalia, among which were 907 chips and eight decks of cards, were captured.

Mr. J. M. Dedman, proprietor of the Bethel, stated to a HERALD reporter that if there was any gambling in his house Sunday, or at any other time, it was not with his knowledge or consent, and that his employees are instructed to stop such things at all times, if they discover any such going on.

W. M. DAVIS, GROCER,

Has removed to the Brown block, on the South Side Public Square. Staple and Fancy Groceries of all kinds, and you will find his prices right. Get your CHRISTMAS GOODS from him. . . . .

A Cold Bath.

Messrs. Earl Voss and Robt. Lentz were out duck hunting in a canoe Wednesday, when young Lentz took a shot at something he saw swimming across the river. The gun kicked so hard that Lentz lost his balance and fell into eight feet of water, and the gun went to the bottom, where it still is. Lentz was towed to shore, half frozen from his cold bath.

T. F. Anthony, ex-postmaster of Promise City, Iowa, says: "I bought one bottle of 'Mystic Cure' for Rheumatism, and two doses of it did me more good than any medicine I ever took. Sold by A. B. Rains, Druggist, Columbia." oct15-5m

Marriage Licenses.

S. P. Hawes to Miss Christine Watkins.
Houston J. Thomas to Miss Nettie Fleming.
Walter Richardson to Miss Birdie Chadwell.
Lonnie Potts to Miss Zula Holder.
David Johnson to Mrs. Kate Howell.
J. O. Cheek to Miss J. O. Nicholson.
Wade Hampton Tompkins to Miss Virginia Randolph Carpenter.

Furniture.

We are receiving daily a large stock of furniture for the fall trade. Come and see. SATTERTFIELD & DODSON.

PERSONALS.

Will Morgan is here from Sewanee. Miss Anyne Helm returned home from Nashville.

Miss Eleanor Helm is visiting friends in Nashville.

Mr. S. P. Payne has returned from a visit to Franklin.

Mr. R. C. Farnsworth is confined to his home by illness.

John Brown and Crockett Owen have returned to Vanderbilt.

Miss Annie Lou Houser is visiting relatives at Williamsport.

Miss Annie Lou McKay is visiting friends at Carter's Creek.

Miss Lauretta Burch, of Nashville, is the guest of the Misses Grimes.

Miss Louise Frieron, of Birmingham, is the guest of the Misses Towler.

Miss Wain, of Owensboro, Ky., is the guest of Miss Henrietta Lazarus.

Mr. Bruce Pickens, of Mooresville, spent Saturday and Sunday in town.

Miss Minnie Lou Davis, of Carter's Creek, is the guest of Mrs. C. P. Snell.

Miss Josie Lewis and Master Robert West have returned from a visit to Pulaski.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Hughes left for their home in Washington Wednesday morning.

John Evans left this week with a surveying party on the N. C. & St. L. Railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newton, of Port Byron, Ill., are in Columbia to spend the winter.

Mr. Arch Lipscomb returned from Nashville Monday, where he attended the amateur opera.

Mr. R. E. Edwards, of the Alkalest Levee Course, of Atlanta, is in the city for a few days.

Dr. John P. McFerrin, of Birmingham, was the guest of his brother, Rev. A. P. McFerrin, Sunday.

Miss Maggie Turner returned Monday to Cross Bridges after several days' visit to relatives in the city.

Misses Janie and Mittie Elam and Miss Mittie McGaw returned Monday from a visit to Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martin, of Kentucky, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John J. Stephenson at Ashwood.

Mr. R. S. McCarty left yesterday for Lexa, Ark. His little daughter, Mary, will accompany him.

Mr. J. E. R. Carpenter of Norfolk, Va., came to witness the marriage of his sister yesterday afternoon.

Mr. John E. Walker has returned from New York, where he purchased goods for the Maury Dry Goods Co.

Mrs. Charley Porter and two children of Nashville, have returned home after a visit to her sister, Miss Minnie Small.

Ernest Sheppard, of the dental department of Vanderbilt University, came out to spend Thanksgiving with home-folks.

Wade Harrison left for Evergreen, Ala., Monday to accept a position with the horticultural department of the L. & N. Railroad.

Robt. Pillow and George Hughes, who came home to spend the Thanksgiving holidays, returned to school at Spring Hill Monday.

Mr. L. L. Erwin has resigned his position as bookkeeper for W. J. Oakes, and he and Mrs. Erwin are visiting at Shady Grove this week.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Avery Hughes, who were married last week in Dover, Del., reached here Saturday morning to spend several days with Dr. Hughes' relatives.

Outman Fleming, who is studying dentistry in the University of Tennessee, came out to spend Thanksgiving. He was accompanied by his friend, Mr. T. M. Hill of Kentucky.

Miss Rhea, of Buford Station, is visiting the family of Dr. Kennedy. Miss Rhea, her mother and sister, were in Galveston during the storm, her mother and sister being two of the victims.

Mrs. E. W. Carmack and little E. W. Jr. have returned from Memphis to Columbia, Congressman Carmack having gone to Washington to be present at the opening session of Congress.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hutton, of Columbia, Tenn., who has been the guest of Judge Fentress and family for several days, left Friday on a flying trip to New Orleans, accompanied by Miss Louise Fentress. — Saturday's Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

Mrs. H. H. Sanders and baby, from Nashville, have been guests of Miss Blanche Scott since Friday. Mrs. Sanders is an own cousin of Miss Kate Aydlotte; she was in Texas on a visit to her parents when the cyclone swept over town, but shortened her visit and hurried on to Columbia as soon as she read of the terrible disaster. As soon as Miss Aydlotte is able to travel, she will go to Nashville with her cousin for a prolonged visit.

MILLINERY BARGAINS.

We do not sell many hats after Christmas; we want to sell all we can before then. Hats that early in the season we sold for $5, we are selling now for $2.50, and $2.50 hats are now going at $1.25. Black Wings, 15 cents a pair.

New original pattern hats, this fall's styles, as beautiful as Parisian hands can make them, and as fresh as the day they were bought, at actual half price. $15 hats for $7.50; $12 hats for $6; $10 hats for $5.

A full line of infants' Cape—something that will suit the babies. We are not asking or expecting much profit; we want to sell this stock and buy Spring goods.

Mrs. M. E. Williamson.

A Big Freight Bill.

The City Grain & Feed Co. paid the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Co., for one day's shipment, one day last week, $1,379.30.

Have You Inspected

Our elegant line of Christmas presents this year? If not, you have missed a treat and ourselves the pleasure of showing them to you. Our line embraces all the latest American and European Art Novelties in Cut Glass and Sterling silver; fine bisque and cameo ware, atomizers, perfumes. Fine leather goods, wave crest ware, art lamps, onyx tables, etc., etc. Call early and make your selections, that we may have your engraving done before the holiday rush.

RAINS, The Druggist.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

J. C. Stallings.

Mr. J. C. Stallings died Wednesday morning about 2 o'clock at his home at Riverside. He had been confined to his bed for several months, and death came as a relief to his sufferings. He was an energetic business man, being proprietor of the livery stable on East Seventh street, and was liked and esteemed by all who knew him. He was in the 54th year of his age, and leaves to mourn his death a wife and four children, who have the sympathy of everyone. The funeral services and interment took place Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at Santa Fe.

Knox Polk.

Mr. Knox Polk died last week in Nashville at the age of 31 years, after an illness of typhoid fever. The remains were brought out to Carter's Creek Friday morning, and the funeral services and interment took place at 10 o'clock at Lasting Hope. Deceased had many friends in this county who will regret to hear of his death.

Thomas Lockhart.

Mr. Thomas Lockhart died Nov. 27 at his home near Mt. Pleasant, aged 53 years. The burial took place Wednesday afternoon at the Lockhart graveyard, services being conducted at Union church. A wife and three children are left to mourn his death.

Reuben J. Chappell.

Relatives here have received the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Reuben J. Chappell, of Pierce City, Mo. Mr. Chappell was a former Maury County man, and had been City Marshal of that place for a number of years.

Mrs. Albert Porter.

Mrs. Albert Porter died Wednesday at her home at West Point, and the remains were interred yesterday in the Fitzgerald graveyard. Deceased had many friends who will regret to hear of her death. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of everyone.

Edward Petty.

Mr. Edward Petty died Friday at his home, on Snow Creek, at the advanced age of seventy-six years. The burial took place Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Godwin graveyard.

Mr. H. D. McCulloch died a few days since in a sanitarium at St. Louis, Mich. Deceased was the father of Mrs. E. Warren Clark, who formerly lived in Columbia.

GOOD THINGS FOR CHRISTMAS.

Nuts, Prunes, Raisins and Fancy Candies and all other good things to eat can be found at

E. P. FRASER'S,

As Cheap as the Cheapest.
Phone 199-3—Riverside d7-14t-w7-3t

County Court.

I. W. Thompson was appointed administrator of the estate of Mrs. Rhoda Walters, especially to receive a pension claim.

W. J. McKnight gave bond as guardian of Andrew and Noble Smithson, minor heirs of E. H. Smithson.

YOUR ORDERS

for groceries will receive prompt attention at our store. We keep a new fresh stock and charge reasonable prices.

We Are the People

when you need hay, corn, bran, field seed, turnip seed or sweet country hams.

Frieron & Embry.

Card From the King's Daughters.

The hearts of the King's Daughters are attuned to plans of praise to our Heavenly Father, and to the generous people of Maury County for their abundant gifts that have made this Thanksgiving so glad with the widows' prayer and orphans' praise. We appreciate it to a degree we cannot express. May the blessings of God rest on all.

Remember, Lord, the ancient days. Renew Thy work; Thy grace restore; And while to Thee our hearts we raise, On us Thy Holy Spirit pour."

KING'S DAUGHTERS.

AROUND TOWN.

Mrs. Mariah Wilson is out again after several weeks' illness.

Sam McGaw is able to be out after several days' sickness.

We are sorry to report Mrs. H. P. Figures confined to her bed with sickness.

Life insurance policies bought for cash or loans obtained. J. C. DEXTER, nov20 eod-w 1f

Miss Mary Blackburn, who had her arm broken, the night of the storm, is improving nicely.

The fence around the reservoir, part of which was blown down by the recent tornado, has been replaced.

Hog Trough Iron Sausage Cutters and Stuffers. Butcher Knives. 11-23-2 J. P. STREET & CO.

Mr. Ed F. Hendley, of this place, left last week for New York City to join the Theodora Opera Co., as scenic artist.

Depot Policeman Addison has been down with the grip for several days past, but is now able to be out again.

Ed Wilson has rented the house on the square formerly occupied by Frank Cook, and will put in a bowling alley.

A school diploma belonging to Miss Kate Aydlotte was found Friday on the farm of Col. A. H. Brown, across the river.

W. B. Turner, Esq., has qualified in the County Court as administrator of the estate of Prof. J. G. Godfrey, deceased.

Col. A. S. Horsley is suffering with a slight attack of pneumonia, at the old Whitthorne place, corner West Seventh and High streets.

Messrs. John T. Wooten and J. H. Ketchum went out hunting last Thursday and bagged thirteen ducks, two squirrels and two doves.

Rev. R. A. Fitzgerald, missionary for Ebenezer Baptist Association, has moved here from Campbellville, and is now living on Thirteenth street.

Charley Morgan, formerly with the American Bell Telephone Company at Hopkinsville, Ky., is now in Columbia with the Cumberland Telephone Co.

The blacksmith shop of Mr. R. G. Bates has been moved to the stand on South Main street, formerly occupied by Mr. M. Winegartner, who will go to Atlanta.

Mr. W. M. Davis, the grocer, has moved his stock from the north side of the square to the stand in the Brown Block, formerly occupied by T. H. Bigham.

Mr. Theodore Stephenson, who has been clerking at Titcomb's drug store, will go to Rains' drug-store January 1, to take Mr. Joe Lee's place, who will go on the road.

Meade Vaughn is temporarily behind the counter at the Bethel House. After the departure of Mr. Walst n the first of the year Mr. Vaughn will welcome the incoming traveler.

A meeting of the newly organized chapter of the Daughters of Confederacy will be held with Mrs. Jos. T. Meadows, Saturday afternoon, December the eighth, at three o'clock.

At the recent meeting of the Board of Education, all of the old officers were elected. Mr. James Andrews, Sr., being chosen President, Mr. W. S. Fleming, Vice-President, and Mr. E. Yoest, Secretary.

The firm of Harlan, Son & Shelton, liverymen, has been changed; Mr. George Harlan and his son, Jake, purchasing the interest of George Shelton. The style of the firm hereafter will be Harlan & Son.

Phintias Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will hold its regular semi-annual election of officers to night. Work will also be done in the second degree. A full attendance of the membership is desired.

It has been definitely settled that the corner store in the Masonic building, now occupied by the Eagle Store, will be occupied next year by the pos office. The move will be made the first week in January.

The trouble with the Columbia Water & Light Company last week was a broken belt. A new one has been put on, however, and the people may expect good service until something else breaks.

The school commissioners for the 9th district have not yet been able to secure a place for teaching the pupils of McDowell school. It is probable that the school will not resume until a new building is erected.

Mr. Joe Lee, who has been with Mr. A. B. Rains for some time, has accepted a position as traveling representative for the Mississippi Valley Drug Co., of Nashville. He will begin his new work the first of the year.

Maury County, Tenn., has a population of 42,705, or 371 more than the population of the State of Nevada, which is represented in Congress by two Senators and one member of the House—Nashville Banner.

The friends of Miss Kate Aydlotte will be glad to hear of her continued improvement, at the home of her uncle, Mr. W. C. Aydlotte, on South High street. She was able to walk down into the parlor Wednesday and play on the piano.

Messrs. C. A. Brownlow, J. M. Sheppard, James English, W. P. Hardin, A. M. Hunter, G. K. Ingram, W. A. Long, Jake Harlan and Earl Voss attended the Thanksgiving gun shoot at Franklin last week. Mr. Hunter secured sixth prize in one of the events.

Mr. J. T. Batts, formerly the West End grocer, has removed to the corner of South High and 9th streets. Mr. Batts bought the business of Mr. J. F. Arthur at the above place, and will continue to serve his old customers with everything in the grocery line.

The personal property of Miss Kate Aydlotte—consisting of three Jersey cows and one half-r, one mare, about 20 barrels of corn and 40 bushels of coal was sold at auction on the square Monday, by Mr. Garnett Rainey, administrator. The property all brought good prices.

Mrs. Williamson's great reduction sale of Ostrich tips, Amazon plumes and pattern hats, came at a fortunate time for the ladies, as it helped some of them decide what to give as a Christmas present. Nothing prettier for a present, and these goods are really selling remarkably low.

Frank D. Lander, Jr., (9 years old) is an important acquisition to the clerical force of McKennon, Anderson & Foster. He is in the Christmas book and toy

J. Rosenthal.

Cool weather has put life into everything. Trade has increased more than twofold, but we yet feel the effect of the warm season. As counters and shelves are too heavily laden we have revised prices, whereby

YOU REAP THE PROFITS.

You will observe our knife has done its work when you compare our prices and examine our stock of

DRESS GOODS, CAPES, JACKETS AND FURS, FURNISHING GOODS, QUILTS AND BLANKETS, SHOES, CARPETS, MATTINGS, AND RUGS, CLOTHING.

J. Rosenthal.

department, of which Miss Mary Beecher is the head, and cordially invite all his little friends to call and trade with him.

W. M. Davis has moved to the Brown Block on the South side of the Public Square, and has opened his new place with a complete stock of everything in the grocery line. Mr. W. H. Bell is associated with him, and the public's interests will be well looked after by these two capable grocers. Go to see their new place and get their prices.

Mrs. M. E. Williamson is offering some very attractive bargains for the ladies. A large dealer, overstocked, has sent Mrs. Williamson two cases of Amazon plumes and Ostrich tips, to sell at less than wholesale prices. These being standard goods, always in style, and less than wholesale prices, they will change hands in a hurry. Mrs. Williamson is also closing out her original Fall pattern hats at exactly half price. This is one of the times when the belated buyers are in rare good luck.

SPECIALS

Blue Seal Flour, per barrel - $3.75
7½ pounds high grade roast coffee, $1.00
10 pounds Seed Tick green coffee, 1.00
3 balls Star pot ash - .25
3 pounds evaporated apples - .25
3 pounds evaporated peaches - .25
Best full cream cheese, per pound, 18
3 pounds fresh stick candy - .25
1 pound package fresh dates - 10
Remember the place, two doors below old jail.

We can furnish you fireworks, candies, apples, oranges, raisins, figs and dates cheaper than any house in the city.

WHITE BROS.

Bell 'phone 24.

LIVE STOCK NOTES.

Mr. George Addison brought up a number of mules Saturday from Savannah, which he had purchased for the Maxwell-Crouch Mule Co.

Monday was quite a busy day in live stock circles in Columbia. A large number of mules were brought to town, and many were sold to the buyers here.

As a result of the sales the following shipments have taken place: Joe McAdams, 3 loads to Atlanta; Gray Hopkins, 2 loads to Atlanta; Abraham Bros. 2 loads to Montgomery; Stegall Bros., 1 load to Abbeville, Ala.; E. P. Duncan, 1 load to Alabama.

The following stock buyers were here Monday: W. T. Stegall, A. S. Stegall, Abbeville, Ala.; Henry Abraham, Montgomery, Ala.; John W. Fox, Dr. O. T. Kenyon, Dawson, Ga.; W. R. (Buck) Seay, Lebanon, Tenn.; E. P. Duncan, E. J. Duncan, Alexander City, Ala.; J. P. Hudson, Louisville, Ky.; Gray Hopkins, Pulaski, Tenn.

Chas Wright sold 2 loads of mules to Abraham Bros.

Just Received.

Car of Acme Wall Plaster. Fresh car Cement 11-23-2 J. P. STREET & CO.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS.

Stock and Household Furniture For Sale.

On Wednesday, December 12, at public auction, I will sell all my household and kitchen furniture, live stock and farming implements. In addition to a great number of smaller articles, this sale will include Mower, Hayrake, Wagons, Horses, Stock, Cattle, and two fine Jennets. Sale to begin at 10 a. m. at my farm near Isom. TERMS: All sums $10 and under, cash; over $10, twelve months time, with approved security. H. W. FLOYD.

Car of Acme Wall Plaster. Fresh car Cement 11-23-2 J. P. STREET & CO.

Just Received.

Car of Acme Wall Plaster. Fresh car Cement 11-23-2 J. P. STREET & CO.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS.

Stock and Household Furniture For Sale.

On Wednesday, December 12, at public auction, I will sell all my household and kitchen furniture, live stock and farming implements. In addition to a great number of smaller articles, this sale will include Mower, Hayrake, Wagons, Horses, Stock, Cattle, and two fine Jennets. Sale to begin at 10 a. m. at my farm near Isom. TERMS: All sums $10 and under, cash; over $10, twelve months time, with approved security. H. W. FLOYD.

McClannahan Bros.,

Manufacturers of and dealers in everything in

Harness, Saddles and Collars.

We have rented the lower floor of the building of Joe Ritt, who continues his produce business in the same house. We are prepared at No. 8 East Side Square to furnish you anything in the leather and harness line, of superior quality and finish, at reasonable prices. For either of the above parties call. Bell 'Phone 155 and Citizens' Phone 265. oct26 3m

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Bishop Gallor.

Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Gallor, Bishop of the diocese of Tennessee, was in Columbia Saturday and Sunday. He preached at the Advent Chapel in South Columbia Saturday night, and confirmed a class of fifteen. Sunday morning at 11 o'clock he delivered an eloquent sermon in St. Peter's church, and administered the rites of